PETITION TO REISSUE OFFICE ACTION

Sir:

On May 5, 2003, Applicant sent two amendments to the PTO via facsimile. The first amendment was initiated at 9:12 a.m. and was entered by the PTO. The second amendment, a supplemental amendment, was initiated at 11:19 a.m. The supplemental amendment added claims 12-20.

The office action of July 15 only considers claims 1, 4-7, and 9-11. It does not consider claims 12-20. Since the supplemental amendment was filed on the same day as the main amendment, Applicant respectfully submits that the Examiner should have considered it and should have responded to it.

The undersigned spoke to the Examiner today. He said that the supplemental amendment has not been entered into the file. He also said that the supplemental amendment should be re-submitted and he would re-issue the office action.

Accordingly, the following are re-submitted herewith:

- The supplemental amendment;

- A sheet produced by the transmitting computer confirming transmission;
- An auto-reply received from the PTO confirming receipt.

Applicant accordingly respectfully requests that the supplemental amendment be entered and considered and that the office action be re-issued.

Applicant respectfully submits that no fee should be due as a result of this petition, because the necessity for the petition arose through an error of the PTO.
